TRENDS FOR FALL /WINTER 2020/2021

Colour themes:

cosmic horizon – golden frost – northern lights

LANG

Y A R N S

This color palette makes you believe that a flower is stronger than the frost.

Colours that will lift you above and beyond the cosmic horizon.

Designs which are made of rich, bright, sometimes soft and different shades of pink.

Variations from soft-running, stunning degradés, warm cherry red and burgundy to different tones of soft pink, all to warm your heart.

Colors that turn into moods that will lift you like there is no more gravity. You have never seen so much beauty all at once. It won't take long before spring arrives. But just like a caterpillar turns into a butterfly, you can turn yourself into a true fashion icon this winter.

LANG

Y A R N S

In autumn when golden leaves start to fall, and winter is awaiting...

The frost will leave a track of wonders on the golden path.

A mixture of grey, off-white, different tones of fascinating browns and warm soothing yellow to make you feel comfortable while wandering through the forest.

Warm, long pullovers with slightly smooth textures or sweaters with a playful structure.

Items that are knitted with small sequins or with a distinguished lace pattern.

It's all in the details. Sometimes you don't need much to create a statement.

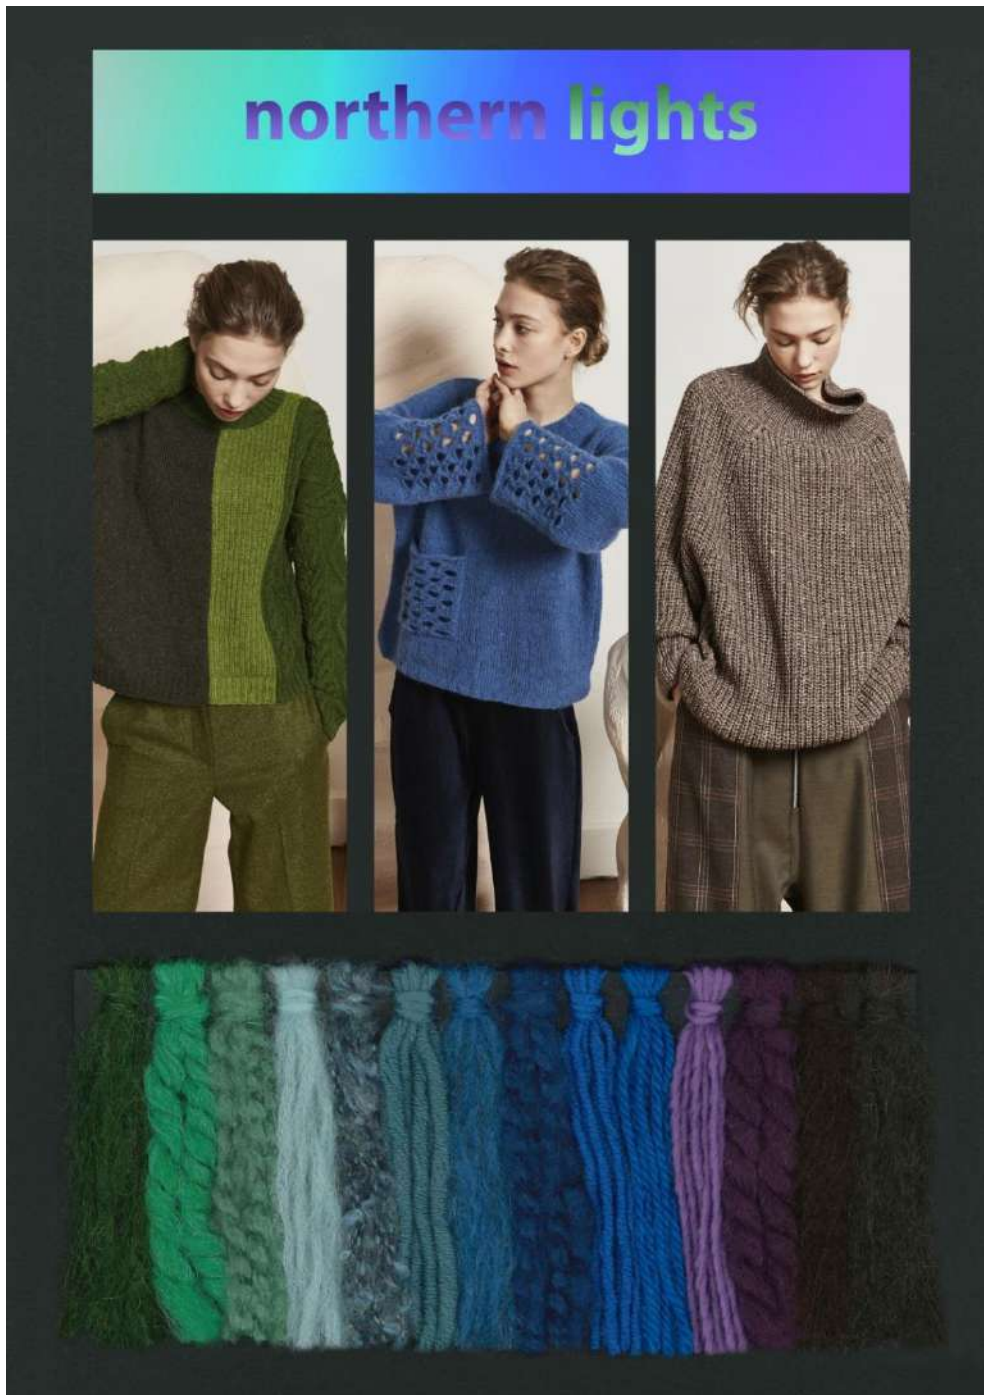

LANG

Y A R N S

Dark blue night skies full of stars and a green shimmering light, that steadily dances around you and the stars, while a cold wind blows at the Arctic Circle.

Light and soft materials are mixed to create a strong and independent look for both women and men. Color blends of different green, blue and some extra beautiful brown tones that remind you of strong tree roots covered with snow. Ready for every snowstorm that will come. Warm, oversized designed knitwear made with yarn that has a matt, but never dull or an outstanding glistening effect. Sometimes, even more exciting patterns have been mixed together to create something extraordinary.

- TIE SOME KNOTS -

NOT ALL KNITTING STORIES END WHEN THE YARN ENDS...

To create a piece of knitting is to create a piece of art.
You must learn every single craft rule
there is to design the unexpected.

Not all craft journeys were meant for you.

But that doesn't mean you should regret them.

Of course not! Being creative is not a choice, it's a gift and it helps to find your true self.

For some crafters that will mean to go back to the basic.

Tie some knots... just to unknot the clutter in their mind.

Others must stretch their creative minds to be pushed to their limits.

But either way, both ways will lead you to glory.

There is no good or wrong way here.

Just keep in mind you don't need approval from other crafters.

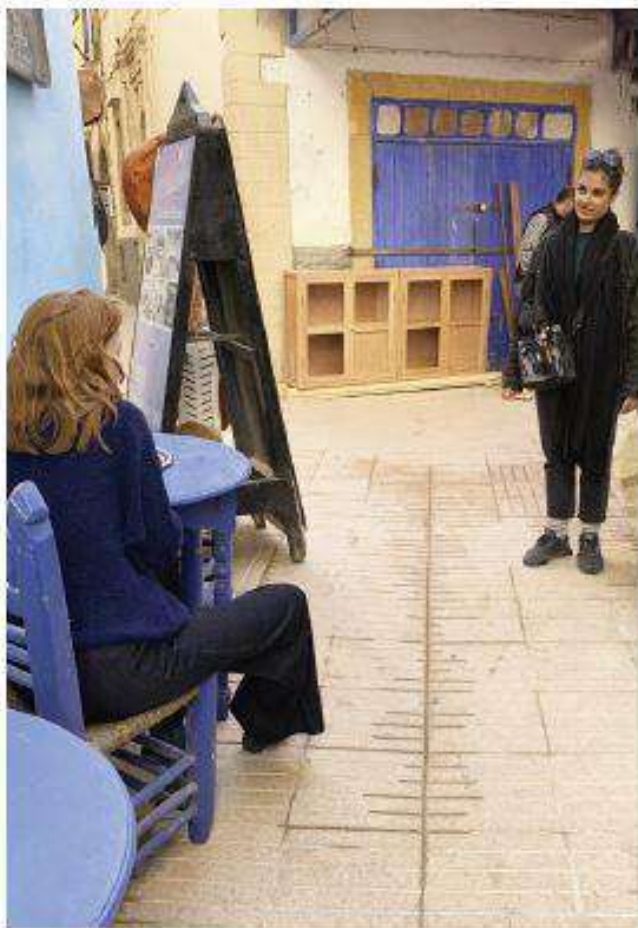

Only focus on yourself,
except when you're reading a knitting instruction.

Find your flow in every row that you make.

BE CRE(ART)IVE – BE ART!

And when you think you lost all hope for inspiration.

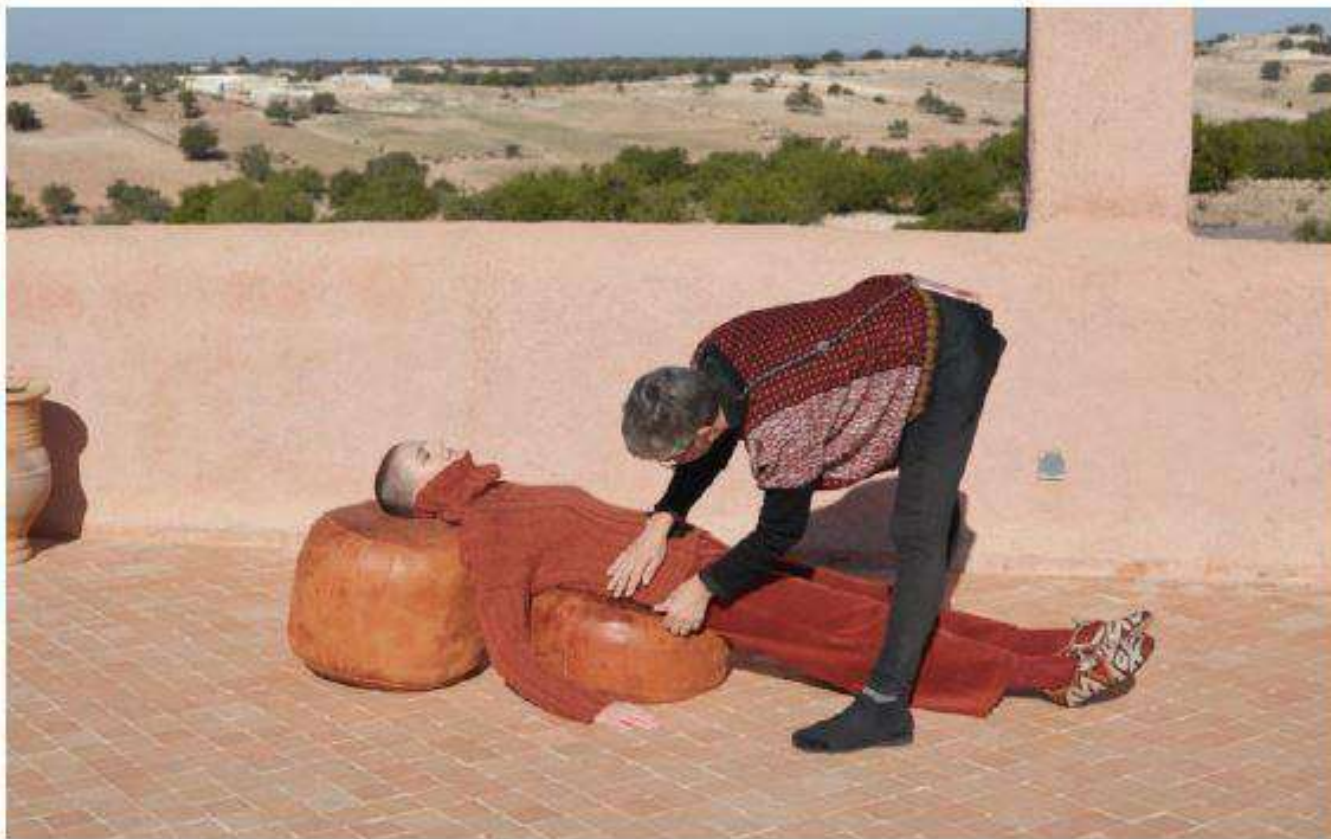

Let creativity lead you to hope for more.
